

ARLINGTON LEAGUE
QUERIES CANDIDATES

Better Government Group Seeks Full Information on Board Aspirants.

ARLINGTON COUNTY
BUREAU OF THE POST,
Tel. C-309. Alexandria, Va.
Its program completed and the executive committee having voted to recommend four candidates for the county board with the first to be chosen by the voters at large, the Better Government Group, through its secretary, Mrs. Thomas E. Gilbert, has sent the following letter to the 41 candidates who have thus far announced for one of the five seats to be filled.

"It is the desire of the Better Government League to give full consideration to the qualifications of the candidates for election to the county board. As aid to the league in forming its conclusions you are invited to submit to the league in writing a statement setting forth your own views as to your qualifications for the office named.

"Statements as to age, education, experience, present occupation, place of residence in the State and county, and particularly desirable information should be submitted at an early date.

"The qualifications as adopted as necessary for membership on the board by the league are which are being sent to all candidates follows:
1. No unimpeachable honesty.

2. Must be one who will be unflingly outspoken in his dealings with the public.

3. Should be one who has made success in making a success in his own life.

4. Should be one having such a group of business affairs and financial matters as to be able to understand and analyze the county's financial problems and contracts of various kinds.

5. Should be one who will deal fairly with all sections of the county and all factions of the people.

6. Should be one who has a full appreciation of the county's future possibilities.

7. Should be one who will give the maximum of cooperation with the authorities of the various departments and with the representatives of the Federal Government in the development of the metropolitan area, subject to a realization of the limitations of the county's resources.

8. All other things being equal, educational qualifications should be given weight in the selection of candidates.

Meeting Early in Month.
9.—Should be one who will see that the taxpayers receive full value for their money and who will resist the creation of unnecessary offices and departments.

10.—Should be one who will subordinate personal interests to the best interests of the county as a whole.

11.—Should be one who will hold a meeting at an early date in the month of August, September 1, which is the last opportunity that candidates will have to file their intentions for the office. At this meeting the league will receive the recommendations of the executive committee to name four candidates for membership on the county board.

L. C. Palmer, of Hylton Valley, Prince-George's County, independent Democrat, has filed his intentions of becoming a candidate at the coming November election with the clerk of the Arlington County Court yesterday.

Mr. Palmer is opposing the Democratic nominee, John Ross, of Prince-George County.

Thos. Reid who seeks reelection to the House of Delegates and who is declared by the Democratic nominee as his intention of becoming a candidate with the clerk of the Arlington County Court yesterday.

Mr. Reid is being opposed by J.
Walter Magan, of Boston, Republican.

Man Is Held as Still In Fairfax Is Taken 1,200 Gallons of Mash Are Reported Destroyed
by Official.

Fairfax County authorities, led by State Troop Division Inspector Virgil Williams, raided a still located on the Hickey property near Clifton Station, Va., yesterday.

Hiker From Minnesota
Starts Trip Back Today

Having rested after a walk of 1,235 miles from St. Paul, Minn., which he made in 28 days, Arthur C. Olsen, 43 years old, of Minneapolis, is beginning his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many long trips on foot, says that he had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he stated, "the night outdoors and cooked his meals with other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he will start on his return trip today.

COLLEGE WOULD
ROCKVILLE PROJECT

U. of Maryland Offers Help in Landscaping Grounds Around Courthouse.

Montgomery County Bureau of the Post 607 First St. N.E., Washington, D.C.
The services of the extension bureau of the University of Maryland were offered to the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners yesterday by Mark Rhoademaker in connection with the landscaping of the grounds around the courthouse at Rockville.

Mr. Rhoademaker offered the services of his bureau for the inspection of trees around the courthouse, some of which were standing upon a tract of land owned by the county.

Mr. Rhoademaker received a copy of the agreement, with other counties, Washington, requesting that Montgomery County contribute $1,000 to a traffic survey in connection with the proposed road in Washington area. The letter was received from the bureau of public works and referred to C. P. Jones, Joseph C. Cassell, counsel to the county commissioners.

"The Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission asked for lower rates for sewer pipes on Barton and Hedge avenues in Silver Spring and Takoma Park in order that work could go forward on the extension of Sewer 1000 in the proposed Fern street underpass at the District Line in an order promulgated by the commissioners.

A committee of three, Charles J.
Madson, county surveyor; Bernard B.
Cannon, and County Engineer Harry R. Shaw, was appointed to consider the closing of Capitol avenue in Capitol View. The committee will hold a public hearing at the junction of Capitol avenue and Capitol View avenue September 13 at 2:00 o'clock.

Four bids received for furnishing 100,000 cubic yards of crushed stone for road construction were opened and referred to County Engineer Harry R. Shaw and two bids for furnishing 210,000 gallons of road material were also opened and referred to Mr. Shaw.

Mount Rainier Youths
Held as Liquor Runners

Charles E. Lilly, 26, of 3807 Thirty-third street, Mount Rainier, Md., and Wendell Wilson Smith, 16, of 3225 Thirty-third street, Mount Rainier, were arrested yesterday morning by Fairfax County Policemen Curt R. Mc-Gowan and Earl Long.

The youths were taken before Justice Ritchie at Fairfax and charged with the possession and transportation of ardent spirits, a gallon of alleged liquor was found in their car. They were ordered held for the return of the liquor on their next court date, which was set at 8:00 o'clock.

Sandy Spring Firemen
To Give Carnival Today

The annual supper and carnival of the Sandy Spring Volunteer Fire Department will be held this afternoon and evening at the Sherwood High School, Sandy Spring, Md. One of the features will be a Maryland fried chicken dinner.

A small game amphitheatre and pony show as well as the usual midway features will round out what promises to be an interesting program. A dance will be held at night.

Fairfax Says Candidates Must File by Sept. 3

Fairfax County election officials have announced that all nominees in all file a notice of their candidacy on or before September 3, which is 60 days prior to the general election in November.

This also applies to everyone who wishes to become a candidate for any state or county office in the general election so that their names can be printed on the official ballot. Such persons must file with the clerk of the county circuit court.

Calves Sent to Cumberland Fair.
The annual county fair, scheduled for Sept. 4-11, at the University of Maryland, has been shipped to the Cumberland Fair, County Agent C. W. Anderson and Assistant Agent Albert A.
Coffey of Montgomery County and fifteen county youths were present yesterday when the live calves were handed and exhibited. Awards probably will be announced at the fair.
It was expected that the calves will be sent to either Eastern fair.

Fire Record.
2133 S. W. 310 C Street northeast, Washington, D.C., was struck by a falling chimney on the roof of the building. The chimney was 100 feet high and fell on the roof of the building. The roof was damaged and the chimney was destroyed. The fire department was called and the chimney was removed. The building was not damaged.

ALL PRINCE GEORGES
MONEYS ALLOCATED

Curtailed of Road-Building Program of Board Appears Likely.

Probability that all the road construction contemplated by the Prince-George County Board of Commissioners would not be carried out this year, was seen yesterday, following an announcement by the State Roads Commission that all county funds had been exhausted.

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Mr. Olsen, who has made many
long trips on foot, says that he
had no use for trains or automobiles. "During the entire trip," he
stated, "the night out-
doors and cooked his meals with
other hikers."

Weather permitting, he said, he
will start on his return trip today.

Doctor Airs Rows
In Woman's Trial

Virginia Physician Tells of How Suspicion in Slay-ing Quarred

Amelia Court House, Va., Aug. 25 (A.P.)—Dr. Craig Eggleston, family physician for Mrs. Jackson Allen Jones, on the stand as a Commonwealth witness in the woman's trial for the slaying of J. Will Jones, her husband, testified this afternoon that there had been a quarrel in the Jones family three days prior to January 8, when Jones was found shot to death.

Dr. Eggleston testified that quarrels had been frequent in the Jones family, but they had become more infrequent as the children grew older.
The physician testified that they usually followed a fit of rage on the part of Jones, in which he would beat the children.

James Powell's Ponies Win
Three Events at Herndon

FAIRFAX BUREAU OF THE POST, P. O. Box 240, Fairfax, Va.

The pony show conducted at Herndon, Va., yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Herndon Volunteer Fire Department drew a large number of entries from all sections of northwest Virginia and Washington. The judges of the show were W. C. Man-gum, of Middleburg, and E. A. Starnard, of Washington.

The winners were as follows:
Best saddle horse under 14 hands, owned by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, won by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, under 14 hands. Best saddle horse over 14 hands, owned by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, won by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, over 14 hands. Best saddle horse over 14 hands, owned by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, won by J. W. Powell, of Herndon, over 14 hands.

Annapolis Cruise
Nearing Its Close

2 Battleships With 1,000
Middies Aboard Sail
From Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 25 (A.P.)—The battleships Arkansas and Wyoming, with 1,000 midgetmen aboard, weighed anchor in Hampton Roads today and steamed away for Annapolis, Md., completing the annual training cruise.

Arriving in Hampton Roads August 15, the two vessels spent last week of the Virginia Cruise, engaged in the southern drill grounds, 50 miles off the Virginia Capes, engaged in target practice.

Hyattsville Plans
New Fire Tower

Women's Auxiliary to Pay for Training Two Men in Department.

Decision of the Hyattsville fire department to build a four-story frame fire tower, and offer by the ladies' auxiliary to send two members of the department to training school were announced yesterday, following a joint meeting of the Hyattsville, Md., Volunteer Fire Department and auxiliary.

Plans for the tower will be laid before the County Firemen's Association at their next meeting.
The Washington Fire Department has invited the Hyattsville company to send two men to the District training school. The auxiliary offers to reimburse them for the wages they will lose while absent from work and will also pay their expenses.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10th 11th F AND G STREETS

Fabrics Take Their Cue
From The Second Empire and Victorian Periods

Fashion is fitting the fabric to the costume, both of which find their inspiration in the Second Empire and Victorian Periods. Diagonals in weaves and patterns—dull failles and cantons—rough-surfaced woollens—boucle—novelty ribbed jersey—softly gleaming satins—these are but a few of it is small wonder we are so excited about them all. And, the prices are lower than you expect, even in this season of notable values.

- All-Wool French Crepe $2.50 yard
- Rayon and Wool Check Crepe $3 yard
- Feather-weight Wool Georgette $2.50 yard
- Diagonal Two-Tone Tweed $4 yard
- Boucle-Surfaced Frosted Crepe $3 yard
- Pussy Willow Satin $3 yard
- Canton Crepe $1.95 yard

Fall, Vogue, Butterick and McCall Patterns Now on Sale Here.

These 1890 Details will date your fashions 1931—rows of buttons—fagoting—pleating—your own Hemstitching Section (Hemstitching Desk, Eighth Floor) will do at small cost.

Fall 54-Inch Coatings
At this special price because they are mill lengths of 5 to 17 yards. Regularly $2.50 to $5 yard

Two and Three Tons
Twelves
Novelty Diagonal
Novelty Eponge
Boulette Tweed
Lacey Tweed
Broadcloth
Kitten-Ear
Boucle
Velour

Cottons and Rayons Ready to Go Back to School
New prints in rayon—tweed and diagonal patterns—printed cottons inspired by Liberty prints, and nursery rhymes patterns for little tots. Prices are lowest in years.

- Rayon Prints 95c yard
- Hollywood Chintz 38c yard
- Chucker Print Crepe, $1.25 yard
- Halygon Prints 38c yard
- Rayon & Cotton Crepe, 50c yard
- Best Quality Percalene 22c yard

EASTMAN KODAK STORES, INC.
607-14th Street, N.W.
Tel. Division 8592

Created using easyPDF Printer
Click here to purchase a license to remove this image