FRED R. PENNELL.

Prominent Pianist Went to Hot Springs for Kidney Trouble, but Pe-ru-na Cured Him.

Fred. B. Pounds, Franks, Grand Opera House, Ind Springs, Ark, without "Two years ago I came to Hot Springs to fake the baths and be treated for bladder and kidney trouble. After spending two months here under the care of one of the most prominent physicians and receiving little or no benefit, I was persuaded to ty Peruna. I had little faith in it, but after using one bottle I noticed a marked improvement. Three bottles entirely cured me. I can cherfully recommend Peruna to any one afflicted as I was."—fred R. Oriental Rugs.

A Sale that Transfers Our Advantage to You.

There's no particular standard of value on Oriental Rugs.
They're worth what they will bring. Importers oftentimes make their bargains in the Orient, with great expectations in view when they arrive here. Market conditions after walter, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and that has been the case with the rugs we're offers, and then have been the case with the rugs we're repeated more more for them, but he had to realize quickly, and the result is we closed out several bales of rugs at a price that gives us an advantage. We'll quote three bales as ideas:

Bale 1—Made up of Oriental Rugs averaging 3x6 feet that ordinarily sell from $8.75 $6.25

Bale 2—Oriental Rugs averaging 3½x7 feet that ordinarily sell as high as $20, $9.25

Bale 3--Persian, East India, and Turkish carpets--9x12 ft. to 10x15 ft., that sell $100

Any number of Persian strips (single or in pairs) for halls and stairs, among the goods on special sale. Some as long as 22 feet, the lot embracing many of the most desirable rugs you will see.
